

Kingswood Pyjamarama 2022

'Children are at the heart of everything we do.'

We came to school dressed in our pyjamas, ready for a bed time story.

‘Children are at the heart of everything we do.’

We brought our families, cuddly toys and blankets so it was VERY cosy!

'Children are at the heart of everything we do.'

We started with a quiz to see if we could name our favourite book characters.

‘Children are at the heart of everything we do.’

All the grown ups from Nursery wore PJs.

'Children are at the heart of everything we do.'

We listened to Shark in the Park, which had words that rhymed, and a repetitive phrase, so we could all join in.

‘Children are at the heart of everything we do.’

We had chocolate milk and a biscuit !

‘Children are at the heart of everything we do.’

Nine Ducks Nine was a counting story with a sneaky fox!

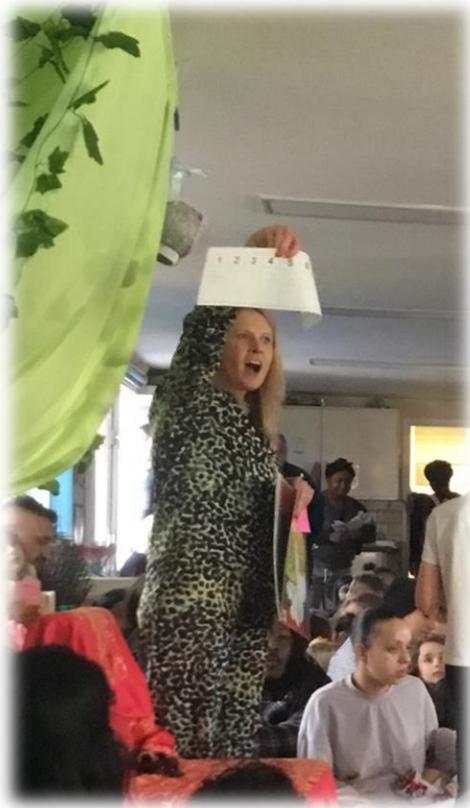

'Children are at the heart of everything we do.'

77% parents said that the event helped them to understand the reason for reading regularly to their child.

‘Children are at the heart of everything we do.’

“ The whole idea is brilliant, to dress up in PJs and listen to a story before bedtime.”

‘Children are at the heart of everything we do.’

“Lovely to see everyone sit together in the nursery and enjoy reading.”

‘Children are at the heart of everything we do.’

“ We enjoyed being with friends and teachers,
and loved listening to Shark in the Park.”

‘Children are at the heart of everything we do.’

Remember: If you can read just two books at bed time every night, your children will have been exposed to over 700 books in a year!

This will help them to have a greater understanding of how stories are structured, learn interesting facts, visit imagined worlds, and expose them to a huge amount of words.
